RECEPTION & HALLWAYS

Setting first impressions is very important especially in the business world. So, if your company takes pride in its brand when guests enter the building or office, then the reception and hallways are important areas to make them feel welcomed and engaged. For flooring, one needs be mindful that it should tackle the constant pounding of footwear. Vinyl tiles are paramount in providing an anti-slip and safe surface. Today's wood-grain designs come in a wide array of designs and colours to inject warmth. For flooring in reception areas, one should consider materials that give a sophisticated and homely vibe. These surfaces should be easy to maintain and hygienic. Even surfaces such as walls and ceilings, one can consider Japanese wallcoverings that provide top to bottom interior fit-outs. All these elements come together to create a welcoming reception or hallway to make your clients feel right at home.

OFFICES & MEETING ROOMS

Is the office purely a room for work or rest? It's a balance of both! A well-designed office can offer elements of work, rest, and even play. For walls, add design, colour and energy with digital prints of your favourite image or photo! Use Walltalkers to help you project your presentation or even write your notes on it. Glass film help to reduce glare and reflectivity, so your employees are better focused in their work. For flooring, carpet tiles can help to endure the rigors of shoes shuffling across it while tackling the hard-rolling castors of chairs. Even upholstery for lounge chairs such as shield leathers can withstand the rigors of daily usage. For meeting rooms, anti-fungal and high-resistant flooring can create a clean and safe environment. Even decorative films for boardroom tables, panel doors and columns can be considered for a well-designed space. All in all, a well-appointed office and meeting room can give birth to many productive, engaging work moments!

SHOP FLOORS, SALONS & SUPERMARKETS

Shop floors, salons and supermarkets are all high-traffic areas, so their decorative and functional spaces should never be given an after-thought. Shield leathers work their decorative magic to clad vertical surfaces, booths and display countertops. Their high-durability and easy-to-clean properties make it easy to maintain. Inject creativity to these zones by utilising digital printed wallcoverings of your favourite photo or image. For flooring, consider the anti-bacterial, anti-fungal materials to keep it sanitised and easy-to-clean. Even engineered timber with their luxurious wood grain is resilient to hard knocks, and easy to decorate can create a plush, welcoming space for your customers.

BARS & RESTAURANTS

A restaurant may be recognised for its food but if the ambience does not convince people to hang out and eat comfortably then it defeats the purpose. We eat with our eyes, so a well-designed restaurant should have surfaces that make people feel welcomed and comfortable. Introduce creativity to walls with digital wallcoverings of your favourite photo or image. Roller blinds inject some vertical aesthetics to make it welcoming, while preventing glare from the sun. Glass films on sliding glass doors also help to reduce reflectivity from the outside. For upholstery of chairs and banquettes, one should consider easy-to-clean 100% pure silicone shield leather to take the daily beatings. Even broadloom carpets will help to create warmth and mood to your F&B space. For alfresco areas, decking that provides high resistance and anti-slip resistance can avert waiting accidents. All these elements come together to create a cosy, stylish and engaging F&B area to attract new customers and engage your current patrons!

GYMS, SHOWER ROOMS, RESTROOMS

Gyms, shower rooms and restrooms come together to create a place to exercise, sweat it out and relax from our frenetic urban lifestyles. In gyms, floorings take the most beatings. Ensure you get materials that can withstand scratches and scuffs from gym weights. Even flocked flooring can tackle the onslaught of drooped weights and pounding of feet. It is durable, comfortable and hygienic. Also, you can consider floor tiles for a more economical solution but is also eco-friendly and easy to maintain. Shower rooms need to be safe and secure to withstand moisture, dirt and mold. Choose floorings that can tackle these issues. Shower rooms need not be staid and clinic because their versatile self adhesive vinyl film can inject design, colour and warmth. Glass film can provide some tinted privacy while reducing colour fading on walls. For shower room privacy, choose contract curtains that are easy to maintain with a wide array of colours and designs to suit every customisation. Incorporate all these elements and you'll have a very welcoming gym that will make your patrons treat it like a second home!
